Re [REDACTED]

Hon. George A. Bartlett,
Biltz Building,
Reno, Nevada.

Dear Judge Bartlett:

I am enclosing herewith an article which appeared in the New York Daily News, one of the New York tabloids, upon April 30, 1946. Late yesterday afternoon, I received a telephone call from Mr. [REDACTED]'s New York attorney protesting what he considered to be unnecessary and unfavorable publicity. I assure you that I am fully aware that you did not encourage the publication of this article. I am sending you the article and the enclosed copy of my letter to Mrs. [REDACTED] so that you may be aware of my comments, if she desires to discuss the matter with you.

I may say confidentially that I realize Mrs. [REDACTED] may grant additional interviews to the press. Particularly in view of the fact that part of her contemplated support arrangements are informal and outside of the written separation agreement, I believe that it would be wise for her to accede to her husband's wishes in this matter so far as reasonably feasible.

Very truly yours,

(Encs.)

Mrs. Gloria [REDACTED],
Palomino Ranch,
Reno, Nevada.

Dear Mrs. [REDACTED]:

Mr. Winston telephoned yesterday concerning the article which appeared in the New York Daily News of April 30, 1946. Apparently Mr. [REDACTED] feels that such publicity is disedvantageous both to himself and to you.

While it is natural that reporters will call on you from time to time, it may be to your advantage to give them as little information as possible. In the event that the validity of your divorce is ever questioned, articles such as that which appeared yesterday relating to your future plans might possibly be used in an attack upon the validity of your residence in Nevada. Furthermore, I call your attention to the fact that temporarily you are relving upon an informal arrangement for support from Mr. [REDACTED]. Even after your permanent arrangement is fully in effect, as you know, you will be relying to some extent upon his continued good will. For these reasons I believe that it will be adviseable to comply with Mr. [REDACTED]'s suggestion that publicity be minimized.

I hope that you are having a reasonably pleasant time and that the weather there has been nicer than we have been having here.

Siacerely yours,

R.B. Rosinger
