

WIFE AVOIDS THE OFFICERS

Dr. Bruguiere Has Thus Far Been Unable to Secure Service Upon His Spouse

Dr. Pedar S. Bruguiere has not succeeded in getting service upon his wife in the second suit for divorce filed last week. Thus far Mrs. Bruguiere, who resides at the fashionable St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco, has succeeded in evading all attempts that have been made to secure service upon her.

It is stated in San Francisco that Mrs. Bruguiere has locked herself in her apartments at the St. Francis, has her meals served her in her rooms and has denied herself to all callers. Several attempts have been made to catch Mrs. Bruguiere at the hotel, but none of them have been successful.

It is apparent that Mrs. Bruguiere is keeping under cover as she was not seen at any of the theaters this week and it has been her custom in the past to go to the theater every Monday evening.

Every effort has been thus far exhausted in the efforts of Dr. Bruguiere's San Francisco attorneys to secure a service upon his wife in his second divorce suit.

An officer was sent to the hotel with the summons and when he asked for Mrs. Bruguiere and insisted upon seeing her he was ordered out of the place. As the management had a formidable array of cene gamblian bell boys lined up to execute orders and not being willing to take chances on making an undignified exit from the rendezvous of the recherches, he accepted the invitation to leave without seeing Mrs. Bruguiere.

Dr. Bruguiere can secure service by advertisement, but it is more desirable to secure a personal service, as by taking the former method it will require a delay of about thirty days. Another effort is to be made to secure service as soon as Mrs. Bruguiere leaves her apartments in the hotel.