Last evening I met a girl from S. Carolina - Brooks or something like that - at the home of Mildred Barns. "Reno - well, well - a man from Reno. Hmmm - I have a girl friend who should go to Reno - etc. etc. I'll have you meet her - etc. I'll have ^{her call} you tomorrow, etc. etc." Well, today, in fact before I was up, a telephone call came - Mrs. Williams - made an appointment to see me at 2:00 tomorrow. Another divorce case perhaps. Today I received my certificate from the United States Supreme Court, a land mark in my young life, which is now almost middle aged. The day was spent running from one Government Bldg. to another, seeing about my Civil Service exam I must take before I can apply for that position Assistant Director of Grazing. Got all the blanks and instructions. This afternoon all law offices were closed - so I sat down at ~~the~~ the small desk in my room and began writing on sheep, cattle range conditions, needs, dangers, law, religion and a dozen other things. This is an unassembled examination, you take some forms with many questions on them and begin writing. It is really quite simple though. At 8:30 I had to quit and put on a clean shirt - yes a date with Jo Craft was made a few days ago. When I appeared at her apt. at 9:00 another couple were there, Mr. Marshall, artist for Lowes Theaters, etc. who has separated from his wife and says he will probably be out to see me one of these days in the Spring. A friend of his, a year or so ago, went out at the time his trial was set (was only gone a week all together). His lawyer rented him a room etc. in advance and fixed a witness. Well well, he told me the lawyer used to practice here in Wash.- (well, well well!)

We went to a night club, etc. Say - today in talking with Senator McCarran, I gained the impression that perhaps I made a mistake by going to see Hartshorn yesterday. I went only for information. He might take me wrong and black list me - God, now I wonder - Well?
