

SUNDAY, MARCH 17, 1935

Today's papers contained an interesting story. The former Barbara Hutton (Princess M) who is now in London, has instructed her New York atty, Millard Tompkins, to make arrangements for a Reno Divorce. She has 42 millions and has been giving the Prince $50,000 a year in addition to the present of one million dollars she gave him for a wedding present. Well - some Reno lawyer is going to have a taste of good fortune (possibly a $15,000 to $25,000 fee). "Oh! God of the $, send me a case like that some day not too far off."

Spent the afternoon at the office writing letters. This evening I took Adele Stepp to see Will Rogers in "Life Begins at Forty." She was an entertainer at the Tavern not long ago and consulted me about a divorce. It seems that money is a bit scarce. After the show we went to the Cedars - to get the blonde lady a new job if possible. She is an artistic soul and has a good voice. She is very good company and it was a tall evening.